1968: Reflections on the Emergence of Holocaust Theology

Emil Fackenheim was an important Holocaust theologian. He delivered a series of lectures at NYU in 1968 which were published the following year as God's Presence in History. In many ways, his understandings set the tone for much of Jewish theology, Holocaust/Israel consciousness for the Jewish community, the Jewish-Christian dialogue and the American political framework for dealing with Israel and Palestine that still holds today.
